Welcome to the 75th anniversary of the Sturgis Rally! I want to thank Full Throttle for the front cover and back cover for Full Throttle 'Sloonshine. Thanks also to the Law Tigers for the Centerfold. You guys make us happen. There is so much going on. Let's start with Twisted Tea. Look for the Tea Baggin' Wagon and say hi to Billy G and Tank.

If you have an accident, bummer. Call the Law Tigers and you'll be taken care of. The Jackpine Gypsies, they are why we are in Sturgis. This is their 79th year. Those guys are crazy going up that hill. Don't forget flat trackers, too.

Charities. There are so many charities out there. I have picked a couple to promote that I know are real. The Legends Ride and Halifax Urban Ministries — they have a bike for raffle...see them at Full Throttle Saloon. Now that you've ridden your bike all day, jump on Da Bus! It is cheaper than what jail would cost if you are drinking. Also, there is Lil Joe's Park -n-Ride. Give it a try. See inside for info.

Lots of bands going on. Check the Guide for the complete schedule of all the events. To mention a few, Bret Michaels and Jackyl will be heading up at Full Throttle Saloon, among many others. The Buffalo Chip has Alice Cooper, The Guess Who, War, and John Fogarty, just to mention a few. At the Broken Spoke Campground, the one and only Hank Williams, Jr. will be appearing. Also, the Last Ride — Sons of Anarchy - see the ad for their complete schedule. Easyriders Saloon has free concerts...POD, Hinder, Hairball and Puddle of Mud.

At the Side Hack/Gunners, build your own Bloody Mary Bar, breakfast buffet and live adult entertainment. Yeah, Baby! Also, a great breakfast for the price. Shade Valley Camping – huge awesome place. Entertainment nightly, awesome food...it's a great spot to hang out.

So many bike shows to mention — Bagger Nation and The Horse at Full Throttle. Check out Billy Lane at the Broken Spoke...and they've got the Rat Rod at Broken Spoke, too; and just so many...check the Guide for complete schedules.

Tattoos – stay out of tents, trailers and kitchens. The Tattoo Cellar is the place to go. They've been at the same location for 18 years. Think before you ink. This place is really clean.

Pick up your 'Sloonshine and take it to your camp home. Guaranteed to give you a kick. We have the Mayors Ride, and Military Appreciation Day with four B-1 bombers flying over.

Head up to Black Hills Harley-Davidson and stop by and see my friend Doc Bailey. They will make your boots shine!

I would like to let you know a little secret. It is called No Name City Luxury Cabins & RV. I did say it was a secret? Make your reservations for the 76th. This place is awesome. They have a pool and clubhouse. RJ and Tanya are awesome! Iron Horse Campground — also, an awesome place to stay. Live entertainment nightly along with a happy hour. It is next to everything.

Beaver Bar! Bringing Southern hospitality with $2 beers. Yeah, baby! $2 beers ...not just happy hour, all the time. Also, live entertainment, a mechanical bull, hot Southern girls and the famous Beaver rocking chairs. They also serve a wake-up morning special - $4 Bloody Mary's, 10a-12n.

After your long ride, visit Fit Technology and let them relax those muscles after your long ride. Take one home with you.

Angell's Sewing. She is awesome. She has a great selection of patches and she is Downtown in Sturgis.

Kimmy Cruz is located at Samson's Corner, and also Bad Ass Bullets. See the Guide for information.

I want to thank Indian Motorcycle of Myrtle Beach. I bet you can get a bike delivered anywhere from them. Maybe.

Get your photo taken on Needles Hwy and Vanoker Canyon by Don Howards. And you can place your order online. Also, thanks to Stephen Spoons for his awesome photography and good looking girls!

Thanks to Linda for her magic fingers, Mike for putting me together, RJ and Tanya for putting me up (or putting up with me), Marlene for feeding me, Thunder for the awesome maps, Jane and Hank for getting me out on time. You all are the best a Publisher could ask for!!!!

In closing, my usual speech. Don't be dragging and revving your pipes, or you will get a ticket and free room and board. Think before you drink, don't leave your drinks unattended — it's not the bartenders job to babysit your drinks. Take care of your servers — they work really hard to make your vacation awesome. Have a safe Rally.

PS - Lots of love to you, Ronnie and Robin.

DEVILS TOWER NATIONAL MONUMENT

While here, you should definitely consider a side trip to visit this geological mystery! Devils Tower is an astounding geological feature in the prairie surrounding the Black Hills sacred to the Arapaho, Crow, Cheyenne, Kiowa, Lakota and Shoshone tribes. It is instantly recognizable if you saw the 1977 film Close Encounters! It is still available for climbers who register through the Park office.

END DEADWOOD

Visit a town born out of the gold rush day of 1876. Deadwood, once a lawless town run by gamblers and gunslingers, was a place of bars, brothels and gaming halls. This was home to Wild Bill Hickok, Calamity Jane and Seth Bullock. It was here that Wild Bill was gunned down while holding a poker hand of aces and 8’s, now known in poker as the “dead man’s hand”. At the top of the hill overlooking Deadwood is Mt. Moriah Cemetery, now “home” to Wild Bill and Calamity Jane. He spurned Calamity in life, but after death he died he was fair game! She had herself buried next to him, where they both are today. Stop by and see where history is alive.

Thank you to the Beautiful Parishence!

CRAZY HORSE monument
in the heart of the Black Hills of South Dakota.

The memorial is to be the centerpiece of an educational/cultural center, to include a satellite campus of the University of South Dakota, with a classroom building and residence hall, made possible by a $2.5 million donation in 2007 from T. Denny Sanford, a Sioux Falls, SD philanthropist. It is called the University and Medical Training Center for the North American Indian and the Indian Museum of North America. The current visitor complex will anchor the center. Sanford also donated $5 million to the memorial, to be paid $1 million a year for five years as matching donations were raised, specifically to further work on the horse’s head. Paul and Donna “Muffy” Christen of Huron, SD, in July 2010 announced they are donating $5 million in two installments to an endowment to support the operation of the satellite campus. It holds classes in math, English and American Indian studies courses for college credit, as well as outreach classes. The memorial foundation has awarded more than $1.2 million in scholarships, with the majority going to Native students within South Dakota. This ambitious project continues, and now the head of Crazy Horse can clearly be seen. This is considered to be the largest sculpture in the world and is 10 times larger than Mt. Rushmore. The Visitor Center is an interesting place to visit, and a small fee is charged for admittance (unless you are an Indian).
